When due to a successful year the season of a CIF sport is extended beyond that listed on the CIF calendar and beyond what would normally occur in a less successful season, the assigned coaches of that sport shall receive "Extended Season Renumeration." This would apply in the case of team sports and when fifty percent (50%) or more of the total events are represented in the case of individual sports. In the event fifty percent (50%) of a team is not represented, the assigned coach will receive one-half (1/2) of the daily coaching rate for each day the season is extended. Extended season renumeration shall be computed in the same proportion as the extra days are to the days included in the regular season.
